

Wildfire is a natural occurrence in the Plan area. Due to fire suppression, woodland fires in the Foothills have been limited in size. Grassland fires in the Valley formerly covered large areas, much now subject to development or more intense cultivation.