

Some portion of the Potential Future Growth area has been subject to planning ranging from approved to pending projects. The PCCP does not address individual projects, rather establishes a process whereby they can obtain incidental take coverage through the plan.