B. Caltrans Application for Active Transportation Funding

At the MAC meeting a request will be made for Sheridan volunteers to form an Advisory Committee to assist with the proposed application. At the request of Supervisor Weygandt a meeting was held by Placer County Department of Public Works. The Caltrans official in attendance gave suggestions on how to write a winning application to include the following topics: Drainage, Sidewalks, Lighting for Public Safety, and Improving School Frontage and Drop Off. Those in attendance at the meeting included members of Placer County Public Works; a Caltrans representative; John Kovach, Principal of Sheridan School; Lyndell Grey, Associate Aide to Supervisor Weygandt; and Chris Ladeas, with California Fish and Wildlife, and the organizer of the initiative. Chris will update the MAC and the community and while also seeking feedback on the topics included on the application.
